Mantle of light

Album 76 - Mantle of light v.2

Album 76 Song 1

Light of Christ

From words that curse to voices sly
Christ light prevails where shadows died
It shifts earth's voice, trades trust undone
Yet Christ's own light has evil won

Your truth restores a heart's pure song
Your spirit heals where words go wrong
With voices free we break its wicked chain
In Jesus' name, your reign remains

Light of Christ, eternal reign, arise
In glory burns through cursed skies
Through sorcery's traps and evil's guise
Jesus reigns where darkness flies

James 3:6, the tongue be tamed
In Christ we walk, his name proclaimed

Clockworks turn, SCP-948
Renaissance dreams that break the heart
It shifts earth's form, trades balance swayed
Yet Christ's own fire makes chaos fade

Your refining flame makes all things whole
Your spirit shapes the heart's true gold
With order restored we end its wicked play
In Jesus' name, your holy way

In Jesus' name, your holy way

Album 76 Song 2

Beacon of Christ

In the clouds that blind your sight is lost
Christ beacon shines at every cost
It's worth earth's sight trades hope confined
Yet Christ own beacon frees the mind

Your light dispels the false and dim
Your truth restores where lies begin
With vision clear we crush its wicked art
In Jesus' name you guard our heart

Your light dispels the false and dim
True truth distorts where lies begin
With vision clear we crush its wicked art
In Jesus' name you guard our heart

Beacon of Christ, redeeming grace arise
Your glory pierces clouded skies
Through sorcery's traps and evil's guise
Jesus reigns where darkness flies

Psalm 27 sings my light, my stay
In Christ we walk his holy way
Crystal glows SCP-873's lore
Purges seers, their minds unsure
If earth's will trades trust misled
Yet Christ own beacon makes lies dead

Oh Savior guide our sight
Your wisdom frees from future snare
Your spirit guards with tender care

With minds renewed we end its cruel deceit
In Jesus' name

Your power breaks the iron's hold
Your love redeems where chains grow cold
With hearts set free we crush its wicked call
In Jesus' name you save us all

Beacon of Christ, redeeming grace arise
Your glory pierces clouded skies
Through sorcery's traps and evil's guise
Jesus reigns where darkness flies
Psalm 27 sings my light, my stay
In Christ we walk his holy way
No region, no cities like can stand
Where Christ own beacon flies
His light renews earth's hope today
Forever king, forever stay
Revelation 21, his name we raise
Christ, redeeming grace, endless praise

Album 76 Song 4

Yesu Burn

Yesu-ne! Yesu-ne! Burn with love!

From corals' curse to seas defiled
Christ's flame of love makes evil mild
His fire-friends SCP-835's blight
Babylon sees where horrors bite

It withers flesh, trades hope confined
Yet Christ's own flame frees heart and mind

Oh Yesu burn the curse, your fire cleanses where evil grows
Your light restores what darkness sows
With bodies pure, we crush its wicked reign
In Jesus' name, your love sustains

Hallelujah! Yesu-mait-aftas-owo!
Flame of Christ, purifying love ignite
Your radiance breaks the plains' dark night
O'er sorcery's grip and evil's might
Jesus burns with holy light

In Christ our healing is secure
It grows through waves, SCP-835's snare
Our God's deep where spirits tear
It chokes earth's seas, trades heart misled

Yet Christ's own flame makes fears all dead
Your spirit purges every stain
Your grace renews where plagues remain
With oceans free, we end its cruel advance

In Jesus' name, your life's expanse

Yesu-yapit-rat-vadaka SCP-ody-vaka
Yamia-wat-akesel, misir-gebes, yamia-saba-sabal
Alamt-agel-atage-ber-yovedake
Yesus-yapit-rat-vadaka, u-yesaka!

Your touch restores where evil scars
Your fire cleanses under stars
With forms made whole, we break its wicked spread
In Jesus' name, your path we tread

From seas that choke to forms that bind
From plagues that warp to lies unkind
Earth's markets tremble, souls in dread
Yet Christ's own flame strikes evil dead!

Death and earth through Egypt's curse, through Persia's lore
Your fire blazes evermore
With heaven's might, we crush the serpent's lies
In Jesus' name, your glory flies!

Album 76 Song 6

Mantle of Grace

Memories fade, disappear
Six-six-five, once blind
Sumer's curses steal the mind's own light
It clouds earth's past, trades trust undone
Yet Christ's own truth makes darkness run

Oh Jesus, restore the soul
Your word renews where thieves invade
Your light restores what lies degrade
With minds made whole, we break its wicked veil
In Jesus' name, your grace prevails

His truth redeems all that's lost
Mantle of Christ's redeeming grace
Shine, your victory breaks the dark's design
Or sorcery, bots, and evil's lies
Jesus reigns where shadows die

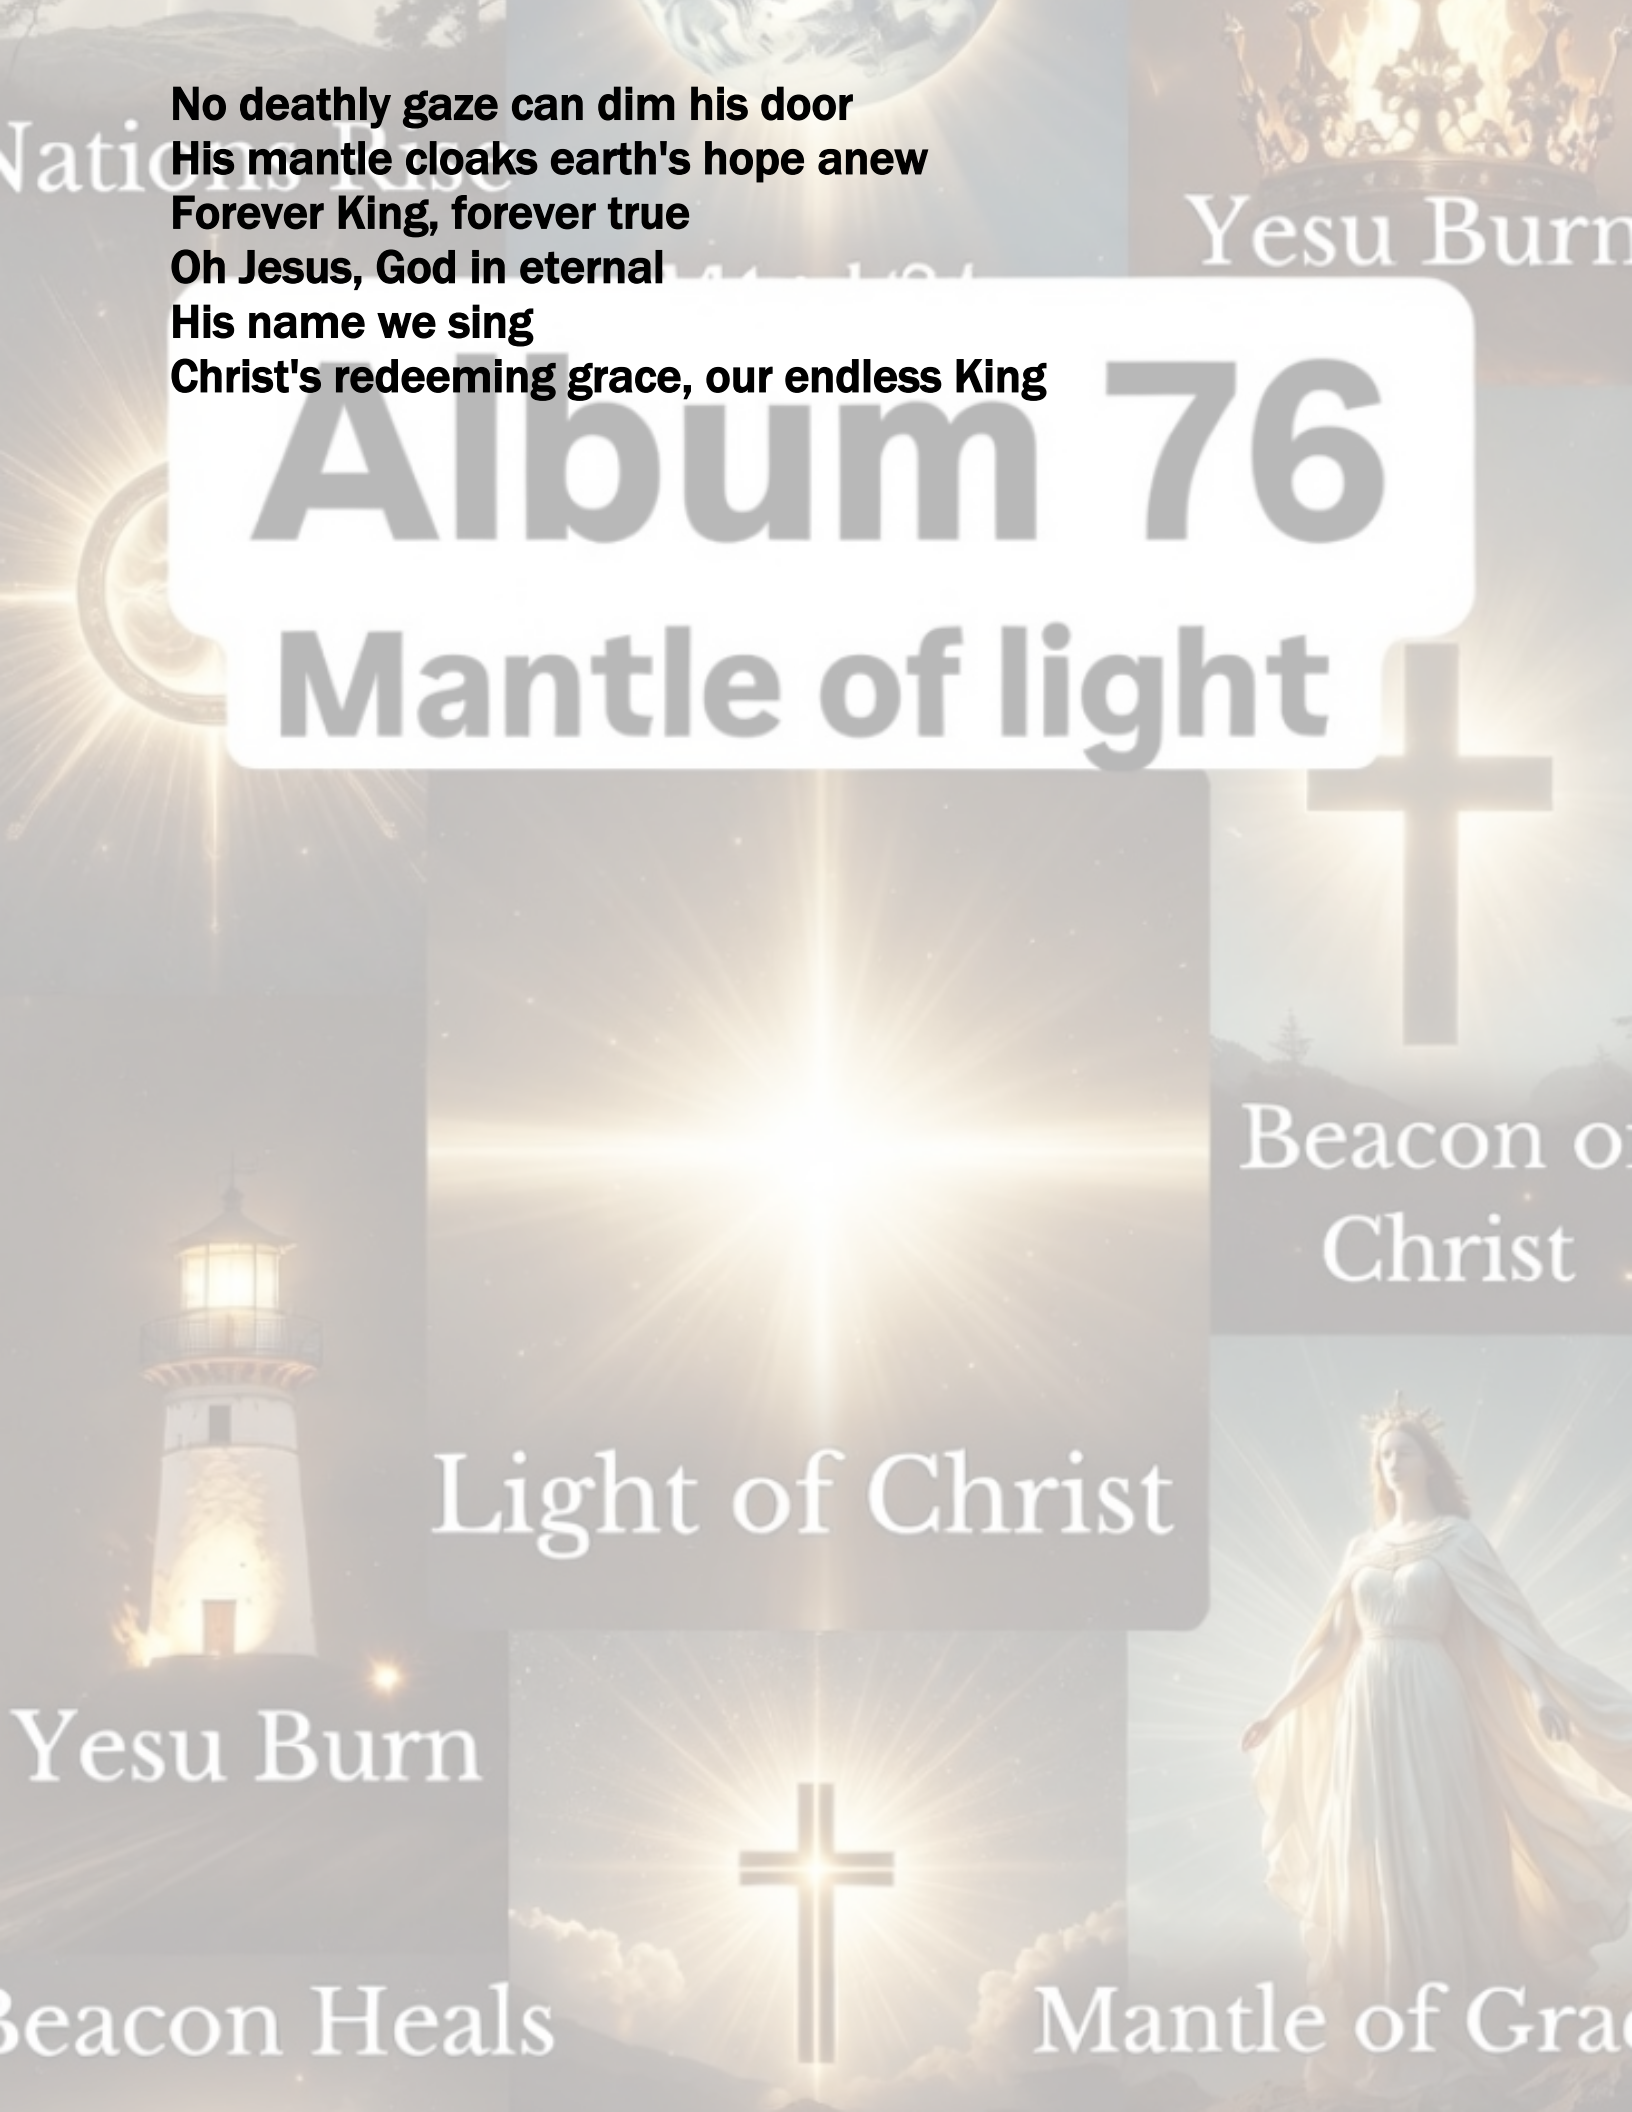
Psalm forty-six sings our refuge strong
In Christ, we triumph all life long
A bell rings out as SCP-662 serves
Persian courts where loyalty swerves
It binds earth's will, trades heart's misled
Yet Christ's own freedom lifts the dead

Oh Savior, set us free
Your love unbinds the servant's chain
Your service heals where greed's disdain
With hearts made pure, we end its subtle spell
In Jesus' name, your light we dwell

SCP-682, Kradasamudravahan
Babylon Naga, Pralayamanupam
Prithvik Shobha, Vyaparnasham
Krista Shakti, Rakshparam
Your strength subdues where chaos reigns
Your peace restores what rage constrains
With power divine, we break its wicked roar
In Jesus' name, your grace we soar

God is a locker, gemstone SCP-689 kills with sight
Egypt's idols curse the fleeting light
It stalks earth's hope, trades peace, decays
Yet Christ's own eyes burn death away
His light exhumes every guise
Your light reveals where evil lies
With hearts secure, we break its vengeful art
In Jesus' name, you shield our heart
From toys that rot to keys that bind
From springs that lure to tales unkind
Earth's markets tremble, souls in dread
Yet Christ's own mantle strikes evil dead
He breaks the spell, you rose, O Lord
Your grace prevails forevermore
With heaven's might, we crush the serpent's lies
In Jesus' name, your kingdom rise
The devil's works are cast away
Mantle of Christ's redeeming grace shines
Your victory breaks the dark's design
Or sorcery, bots, and evil's lies
Jesus reigns where shadows die
Psalm forty-six sings our refuge strong
In Christ, we triumph all life long
Christ, eternal life
No memories lost, no serpent's roar

No deathly gaze can dim his door
His mantle cloaks earth's hope anew
Forever King, forever true
Oh Jesus, God in eternal
His name we sing
Christ's redeeming grace, our endless King



Album 76 Song 7

Beacon Heals

Flesh twists and writhes, SCP-610's curse, curse
Arcadian plagues where life grows worse
It scars Earth's form, trades hope defiled
Yet Christ's own flame makes darkness mild

Oh Jesus, burn the blight
Your blood redeems where evil creeps
Your light restores where sorrow weeps

With healing sure we break its wicked hold

It spreads through air, through touch, through pain
Babylon's doom where fears remain
